

Commandant's 100

The Commandant's 100 is an initiative to recognize the best young Soldiers in the Regiment. The focus is towards our best Specialists and Corporals, junior NCOs, WO1 and CW2s and Company Grade officers, but other ranks are eligible too. Only 100 Soldiers will be recognized during the Commandant's tenure.

Eligibility

- Must be an MP (31B, D, E, 311A or 31A) of any component.

Nomination Process

- Direct identification by the Commandant.
- Nomination by the RSWO or RCSM.
- Field Nominations from any MP Battalion Commander or CSM and Above.
- 1 page narrative of the Soldier explaining why they are one of the best, of which may be published in Military Police professional documents.
- Candid photo of the Soldier.

Recognition

- Presentation of an engraved and numbered Brass Commandant's 100 belt buckle.
- Certificate signed by the Commandant identifying the Soldier as one of the top 100 Soldiers within the Military Police Corps Regiment.
